

Saying goodbye

All together we are there
Just waiting now – the time is near
A long time has passed with sickness and pain
We all know things will never be the same

No one talks, we watch her breath
I've never before been so close to death
Then it stops, is this it?
I find a chair, I need to sit

She breathes again, but it's getting weak
Someone is here for a soul to seek
I wonder if she knows or perhaps even fears
Leaving us all bursting into tears

Finally she lets go – leaving us there
She has passed on to a place somewhere
We all start to cry, even though we know
This was the best for her – she had to go

It wasn't that bad, I guess there's nothing to fear
I figure in Heaven you won't see a tear
Those crying hard are the ones left behind
And grieving will always be a natural state of mind

I will never forget her spirit, her smile
Saying goodbye it took us a while
But it's been years now and also her husband is gone
We remember them both, but life moves on

We all have to leave, someday time is up
But life is a circle, it will never stop
From birth to death, from seed to flower
Life is a miracle, a magnificent power
